

Time

Tekst/musikk:
Heidi Marie Vestheim

Intro Em C Bm C C

Vers
6 Em C Bm C

1. Have you read your book and think - ing back in time,

10 Em C Bm C

when a day last - ed at least a month in mind?

14 Em C Bm C

Don't know about you, but I really thought I had a clue,

18 Em C A

but the more I know, the less I do.

Refreng

22 G Bm7 Em

Will I grow old on night? Will I

26 G Bm7 Em

learn from the words that I write? Can I be-lieve

30 C D

in this? Can I a - chieve from this?

Refreng 2. gang

34 G Bm7 Em
 Will I grow old on this night? Will I

38 G Bm7 Em
 learn from the words that I write? Can I be-lieve

42 C D
 in this? Can I a - chieve from this? Will I grow

46 G Bm7 Em
 o - ld on this night, oh ni-ght? Will I

50 G Bm7 Em
 le - arn from the words that I wri - te? Can I be-lieve

54 C D
 in this? Can I a - chieve from this?

58 Em C Bm C
 (Musical notation for the final line)

2. And every perfect day bring sorrows to a few
 And every million dollar man have some worries, too
 And every everlasting night has a morning, too,
 but that's just something I've heard.

And every mother used to be a daughter, too
 And if I become one, I hope I don't forget I'll find my diary, and read and not regret the things a daughter does.